Safety Recommendation:

The Irish Parachute Club should revise its Operations Manual to specifically prohibit the carriage of persons other than those indispensable to the mission on aircraft being used for parachute/skydiving operations as required by Commission Regulation (EU) 965 of 2012, as amended.

Response:

The following response was received from the Irish Parachute Club on 8 June 2020:

“The Irish Parachute Club has revised its Operations Manual to specifically prohibit the carriage of persons other than those indispensable to the mission on aircraft being used for parachute/skydiving operations as required by Commission Regulation (EU) 965 of 2012, as amended. As required this manual (IPC Part SPO Rev 4 JUN 19 (2.5)(e)) is revised periodically both internally and with The Irish Aviation Authority.”
